

Social and Personal

CAROL S. DIBBLE.

The Ladies Aid society of the Leslie Methodist church met yesterday afternoon at the home of Mrs. J. Klopping on South Liberty street. About forty ladies enjoyed the afternoon. It was decided that the society would hold a bazaar on December first, during the afternoon and evening. A program will be given and dinner served from six to eight. The committee in charge of the affair will be Mrs. J. C. Spencer, chairman, Mrs. J. W. Carson, domestic booth, Mrs. J. T. Ingray, candy, Mrs. F. S. Kightlinger fancy work, Mrs. A. Vass the handkerchief booth. The society will also hold a Kensington next Wednesday at the home of Mrs. Mason Bishop, when a program and social afternoon will be enjoyed.

Miss Aetna Emmel and Miss Esther Emmel, of Willamette university, entertained informally at an enjoyable birthday party last evening in honor of their brother, Herchel Emmel, at their home on Seventeenth street. A pleasant evening of games and music was enjoyed. The guests were: The Misses DeLong, Beck, Dodge, and Walton, and Messrs. Bradson, Lemmon and Taylor.

Mrs. Ralph Lynch, who has been the house guest of Mrs. C. A. Park, has returned to her home at Alamosa, Colorado.

Mrs. William P. Lord and Miss Elizabeth Lord, of Salem, are the house guests of Mrs. Willis Dunway, of Willamette Heights. They doubtless will be the inspiration for many social affairs—Oregonian.

A simple, but pretty, home wedding took place Monday noon, when Miss Mary Wisner and Henry C. Voss, of Albany, were quietly married at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. William Wisner, on the Wallace road. The service was read at twelve o'clock by Rev. H. E. Marshall, of the Baptist church. A tasteful arrangement of white chrysanthemums formed an attractive setting for the ceremony, following which a dainty wedding collation was served. The bride wore her traveling costume, a becoming serge suit. Mr. and Mrs. Voss left immediately on a wedding trip to California. After December 15, they will be at home to their friends near Albany.

A pretty Halloween party was that given at the H. A. Rawson home, in honor of Miss Dorett, Dork's Sunday school class. The rooms were adorned with autumn leaves and Halloween decorations. Ghostly costumes and appropriate games and music contributed to the festivity of the evening. Later a Halloween luncheon was served. Those enjoying the affair were: Misses Clara Waldorf, Myra Gleason, Anna Gleason, Pearl Morse, Rita Lott, Maud Givon, Leora Godward, Della Rawson, Alice Dork, Edith Barker, Ivel Bailey, Eda Waldorf, Leorita Dorka, Mrs. H. A. Rawson, and Mrs. Waldorf.

The members of the Garden Road Busby club motored to Stayton on Tuesday afternoon, and pleasantly surprised their former vice-president, Mrs. Edward Young. Mrs. Young proved to be a most gracious hostess, entertaining her guests most hospitably. Dainty refreshments were served later in the afternoon. The following club members enjoyed the visit: Mrs. W. J. Savage, Mrs. Bailey, Mrs. Rollo Bradford, Mrs. N. S. Savage, Mrs. Frank Greipentrog, Mrs. Bishop, Mrs. Hussell, Mrs. J. Kueckelberg, Mrs. Heary Savage, Mrs. Geo. Cooper, Mrs. Homer Steward, Mrs. Joseph Savage, Mrs. A. Martin, Mrs. Al Rasmussen, Mrs. Matt Gleason, Messrs. W. J. Savage, J. Kueckelberg, Jesse Savage and N. S. Savage lent their services and automobiles for the occasion.

A most distinctive Halloween affair of last week was the progressive dinner, given by the "Quince-Jours" club on Saturday evening. The dinner consisted of five courses, each course being given at the home of a different club member. Miss Alice Judd was the hostess for the fruit course and presided at a table, the appointments of which were in harmonious accord with the nature of the course, abounding as it did in a variety of luscious fruits. The table was artistically covered with green burlap, with a unique centerpiece consisting of a miniature oak stump, on top of which rested a Jack o' lantern, while trailing over the sides were autumn leaves, and scattered over the table were cunning acorns. Miss Ruth Krype and Miss Kathleen McClellan entertained the guests at the salad course, at the home of the former, a handsome display of marigolds making handsome table decorations. The meat and vegetable course was served at the home of Miss Mary Figgler, with Mrs. Blanche Liston Neumever and Miss Joy Turner as additional hostesses. Crepe streamers were suspended from the chandeliers to the corners of the table, which was gorgeously centered with a pumpkin, filled with dahlias. The entire decorative motif was carried out in yellow, yellow dillies being employed, with pumpkin place cards marking the covers. Miss Margaret Hodge dispensed pumpkin pie and cider amid an artistic setting of dahlias and autumn leaves. Following this delectable refreshment hour, an informal program was enjoyed, comprising several vocal selections by Miss Judd and Miss Hodge, readings by Mrs. Neimeyer, and piano numbers by Miss Figgler. The revelers then wended their way to the home of Miss Marie Bennett for dessert, where Miss Bennett, Miss Hazel Price and Miss Murch Hazel served a dainty collation of ices, cakes and coffee to their guests, who circled the small tables. Dahlias splashed with reddish gold and shading into lighter tones, formed exceedingly effective decorations, harmonizing with the yellow shades, which marked the various dinner elaborations throughout the evening. A merry feature of this delightful Halloween event were the fancy costumes of the club members, which included a number of witches and ghosts, a Gypsy queen, a yellow pumpkin, a Spanish girl and an Irish maid. The affair, an extremely novel one, is one of many such, given from time to time by this gay group of merry makers, the Quince-Jours club.

Honoring the president of the State Rebekah assembly, Mrs. Rose E. Palmer, of Baker City, the local lodge of Rebekah met Tuesday night at the Odd Fellows hall. This lodge put on the degree work for the president, following which an enjoyable program was given. Mrs. F. L. Waters and Mrs. B. W. Shingler sang a duet, Mrs. Blanche Liston-Neimeyer gave a reading, Mrs. LaMoine Clark entertained with several whistling solos and short addresses by Mrs. William Galloway were delivered. Afterwards, a social hour was enjoyed when refreshments were served. The hostesses for the evening were: Mrs. Paul Swanson, Mrs. Luella Engstrom, Mrs. May Ratcliffe. On Friday the ten lodges of this district, number four, will go to Aurora, where they will convene during the day and evening. The degree staff of the local lodge and that of the Canby lodge will compete for the silver cup.

The attractive home of Mr. and Mrs. E. M. Cooper, 1280 North Fourth street, was the scene of a delightful surprise party, Monday evening, it being Mrs. Cooper's birthday. The evening was spent in games, music and cards, and at a late hour a dainty lunch was served, brought by her friends. Those enjoying the evening were: Mr. and Mrs. Wilbro, Mr. and Mrs. Butty Cooper, Mr. and Mrs. Enos, Mr. and Mrs. Deppner, Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Bort, Mr. and Mrs. Victor Swartz, Miss Mary Jones, Miss Florence Jones, Miss Bort, Mrs. Butte, Miss Alkire, and Delbert Miller, Louise Cooper and Fred Alkire.

The C. R. M. of the First Christian church, will entertain tomorrow afternoon by Mrs. John Lockman and Mrs. Clarence Bliss at the home of the former on South Fourteenth street.

The home of Mr. and Mrs. E. C. Buinell in West Salem was the scene of a pleasant Halloween party on Saturday evening. The guests came garbed as ghosts and an evening of Halloween diversions was enjoyed. The customary weird music pertaining to Halloween, consisting of black cats, Jack o' lanterns, and black and orange streamers, was employed throughout the room. Miss Elie Buge assisted the hostess in serving. Those guests present were: Miss Metta Warm, Miss Beth Bedford, Miss Florence Beckett, Miss Davis Rhodes, Miss Mildred Douglas, Miss Dorothy Douglas, Miss Julia Page, Miss Mable Ruge, Miss Julia Rhodes, Miss Ruth Bedford, Arnold Kreuder, Leslie Blue, Beryl Bree, Fred Bree, Walter Brannon, Howard Rex, Aroela Swartz.

How To Get Rid of a Bad Cough

A Home-Made Remedy that Will Do It Quickly, Cheap and Easily Made

If you have a bad cough or chest cold which refuses to yield to ordinary remedies, get from any druggist 2 1/2 ounces of Pinex (50 cents worth), pour into a pint bottle and fill the bottle with plain granulated sugar syrup. Start taking a teaspoonful every hour or two. In 24 hours your cough will be conquered or very nearly so. Even whooping cough is greatly relieved in this way.

The above mixture makes a full pint—a family supply—of the finest cough syrup that money could buy—at a cost of only 54 cents. Easily prepared in 5 minutes. Full directions with Pinex. This Pinex and Sugar Syrup preparation takes right hold of a cough and gives almost immediate relief. It loosens the dry, hoarse or tight cough in a way that is really remarkable. Also quickly heals the inflamed membranes which accompany a painful cough, and stops the formation of phlegm in the throat and bronchial tubes, thus ending the persistent loose cough. Excellent for bronchitis, spasmodic croup and winter coughs. Keeps perfectly and tastes good—children like it.

Pinex is a special and highly concentrated compound of genuine Norway pine extract, rich in pinic acid, which is so healing to the membranes.

To avoid disappointment, ask your druggist for "2 1/2 ounces of Pinex,"—do not accept anything else. A guarantee of absolute satisfaction, or money promptly refunded goes with this preparation. The Pinex Co., Ft. Wayne, Ind.

Los Angeles, Cal., Nov. 4.—In an effort to locate G. W. Bahr, of Chicago, who dropped out of sight after leaving this city en route for Los Angeles where he was to have married Mrs. Serena Angelotti at the Alexandria hotel last night, detectives today telegraphed the Chicago authorities. Mrs. Angelotti believes that the bridegroom is the victim of an accident or was injured and robbed by crooks just outside of Chicago.

COUNTY COURT WILL NOT SUPPLY SALARY OF AGRICULTURALIST

Commercial Club Seeks Raise But Farmers of County Opposed To It

Believing that the present is a poor time to raise salaries the county court has refused to donate $600 to be applied to the salary of the county agriculturalist as recommended by the Salem Commercial club. The Commercial club sent a delegation over to the meeting of the county court yesterday afternoon and the grange and other farmers' organizations also had delegations present. The Commercial club was strongly in favor of retaining the county agriculturalist to teach the farmers how to farm and to raise his salary $1,200 a year but the farmers present were strongly opposed to the luxury of a county agriculturalist.

With one exception some two dozen farmers representing the various communities of the county all spoke in opposition to the plan to employ a county agriculturalist. They stated that they did not need a man to teach them to farm as they knew their soil and knew what crops it would raise, learning from the hard school of experience. They said city farmers might find use in an expert but the man who rolled up his sleeves and salivated on his palms knew from experience how to get the best results.

One farmer related the facts relative to his clover field. He said he was going to put in 50 acres of clover when the county agriculturalist happened along and told him how to grow his clover. The farmer who had lived on the place for years declined to accept Mr. Chapin's advice but went ahead and sowed his clover according to his experience of the past. A neighbor across the fence, however, was going to put in 20 acres of clover and sought the advice of the county agriculturalist who told him how to get the best results. The farmer followed the advice given and the clover was a failure. When the next spring rolled around the 50 acre patch was the best in that section of the county and photographs were made of the field to show how clover would grow without high fertilizer. The 20 acres over the fence appeared to be a field of summer fallow and no photographs were made of the results of the scientific process of raising clover.

County Judge Bushey said today that the agitation for raising corn in this county was the result of an attempt to grow a cheaper feed for stock now that wheat had gone skyward. If wheat were of an average price the farmers would feed it to their hogs but they could not fatten hogs at a profit on dollar a bushel wheat. Farmers who came to Marion county from the middle west 40 years ago raised corn in this county and know what it will do. If they have a long dry summer like the present one, it will ripen but if the fall rains set in early after a late spring the corn will not even turn yellow until it has moldered in the field unless it is cut and dried by artificial means.

There is a law in this state whereby the state will contribute an amount equal to that contributed by the county for the employment of a county agriculturalist up to the amount of $1,800 per year. This county has always contributed $1,200 annually for the employment of a county fruit inspector. Last year the county labeled the $1,200 set aside for this purpose as for "Fruit inspector and county agriculturalist." The state then contributed a like amount and the county agriculturalist received the $1,200 from the state fund. The year the Commercial club asked that the county court raise the amount for "county fruit inspector and county agriculturalist" to $1,800 which would cause the state to contribute a like amount and would allow $1,200 to be paid to the fruit inspector and the other $2,400 to the county agriculturalist.

The county court refused to add $600 because of the strong opposition of the granges and other farmers' organizations to paying out county funds for a man to sit on the fence and tell them how to run their farms.

"The strange thing about this agriculturalist business," said Judge Bushey today, "is the fact that the Commercial club is the only organization in favor of hiring one. They want to hire one for the farmers but the farmers don't consider that they need such a man. Now it is a question whether the Commercial club knows what the farmers need better than the farmers themselves and I am inclined to believe that the men who are the closest to the soil know about what they want."

WILLAMETTE NOTES

Miss Myrtle Albright, a former W. U. student, but now staying at her home in Marquette Ore., is a visitor for the week at Lonsanne last Her sister, Miss Ronald, is now attending college at Willamette.

The Websterian program last evening was of an interesting nature, in that it dealt with the relations of the United States with the belligerent nations. A condensed resume of the diplomatic relations was rehearsed and the main points of contention were discussed.

Next Wednesday evening a debate on the subject, "Resolved, that the news papers have done more to mould public opinion than all other forces combined," will be held. Visitors are always welcome.

The Philodorian held their annual initiation last evening, and those who were initiated bear visible marks of the affair. They claim that they were given a warm reception.

President Carl G. Doney will give the first lecture of the Willamette faculty series of lectures, next Monday evening at 8 p. m. in the Willamette chapel. His subject will be, "The War and Religion."

Keep your boy's old geography. The maps in it will look so queer in a few years after the war ends.

Money Started Mutiny—German Spy Blundered

San Francisco, Nov. 4.—Seven thousand German and Turkish troops recently lost their lives trying to land on the Egyptian coast, said Captain McDonald, arriving aboard the oil tanker Frank H. Buck today after an eight months voyage. And their lives were sacrificed because a German spy blundered.

"I saw 34 pontoons loaded with German and Turkish soldiers trying to land in the Suez canal wiped out one after another by the British guns," he said. "Only one man escaped. Papers on him showed that the German secret service agents had a complete map of all the Suez fortifications with the exception of one fort. It was the guns of this one that destroyed the expedition."

McDonald sighted the San Francisco steamer Maverick, reported captured by the Dutch, and two other vessels flying the American flag, off Batavia, all loaded with submarine parts and supplies, he said.

Speaking of the recent Singapore mutiny, McDonald said it was started by $2,000,000 in German money paid to British native troops. Signals went wrong and the whole English population in India would have been destroyed, he said.

HAZEL GREEN.

(Capital Journal Special Service.)
Hazel Green, Or., Nov. 4.—Bidden by dainty hand painted pumpkins, and commanded by the same to appear in ghostly garb with faces masked, the guests of the H. G. C. E. assembled at the parsonage Friday evening. The guests were met at each door by other "spooks" who pinned a number on each and commanded a seal of silence as they ushered them into rooms containing no lights save grinning Jack o' lanterns. When all had assembled a contest was held to determine "which ghost was which." A vast number of surprises were revealed when the contest ended and the ghosts unmasked. All the usual Halloween stunts then followed. Promptly at the stroke of twelve the lights disappeared and a ghostly presence entered and chanted an unearthly weird song of a graveyard scene, ending the song in a horrible screech which caused "sure enough shivers" to run up and down the spines of the guests. Refreshments were then served consisting of pumpkin pie, doughnuts, and apples made doubly refreshing by "Leju" as a beverage.

Those sharing the good time of the evening were: Mr. and Mrs. E. O. Sheppard, Mr. and Mrs. A. Jackson, Mr. and Mrs. John Van Cleeve, Mr. and Mrs. A.
